Drastic Action to Curb Combinations Which Ignore or Evade the Statutes Foreshadowed by President in Speech at Chautauqua.

(Special to The Evening World.)

CHAUTAUQUA, Aug. 11.—As the leading features—one of our foreign ey, the other of our domestic policy—President Roosevelt chose as the ic for his address to the Chautauqua Assembly at 10 o'clock to-day the

It was on the latter subject that the President was the more interesting and drastic action to curb law-defying combinations was foreshadowed by

Many corporations exhaust every effort which can be suggested by in every way perilous and constitutes a menace to the nation.

It has become our conviction that in some cases, such as that of at least certain of the beef packers recently indicted in Chicago, it is impossible to longer show leniency.

Either they will have to submit to reasonable supervision and regulation by the national authorities or else they will ultimately have to submit to governmental action of a far more drastic type.

The Monroe Doctrine is not a part of international aw.

IAKES BELCHER'S PLACE AS MAYOR

David Young, President of the Board of Aldermen, Assumes

Mayor is absent ten consecutive days his place shall be filled by the President of the Aldermanic Board. That time has elapsed since Mayor Belcher fied. Besides performing the duties of Mayor. Mr. Young will retain the office of President of the Board of Alderman. He will receive no additional compensation as Mayor.

The temporary receiver for Belcher's estate will hold the estate intacc until bankrupter is declared and a permanent receiver appointed. The order granted by Judge Laming will restrain all attachments that have been assisted against the property of the fugitive Mayor. Receiver Campbell will make an inventory. It is expected that the property will be divided in an equitable manner among the creditors.

A postal card received here this morning by Harry Gold, of Straight street, time Billy D., and dated Stockton, Cal., said that the writer had seen Mayor Belcher there, and that Béscher had shaved off his mustache and was wearing a new suit of clothes.

It was at first supposed that the postal was a hour, but the authorities have looked into the matter and think the story may be true. William Becker, the propable writer, is a clear salesman well known in Paterson.

to tell them something about the four incondiary blazes in the fashionable apartment house at No. 150 Hilbs street last night. Detestives assert that it was sought to destroy the property to conceal a series of perty thefts. The four fires orested a panic among the tenants of the apartment house and of the Mansion House, adjoining. They were discovered in the apartment of Theodore Crohen, who, with his wife and family, is spending the summer away from Brooklyn. Mrs. Jerome Buok, who lives in the house, gave an alarm about the same time that smoke was seen by guests in the Mansion (Railroad claim agents are guests around the invitation.) House. When the firemen broke into the Crohen apartment, which is in the rear on the third floor, they found the front door blasing, the portieres of the dining-room in flames, linen afire in a closet and clothing in the dining-room chil-sumed to destroy all evidence of any nossible burglary. The flames were put out with trifling loss, and the Fire Marshal was notified.

Fire Marshal Flynn, after questioning the tenants, learned that a servant stri who had worked for the Crohens had been seen entering the apartment from time to time during the family's absence this summer. As the door of the apartment was locked at the time the fire was discovered, the circumstances were considered sufficient to ask the police of the Fulton street station to look for the woman, so that she could be detained and questioned particularly about a quantity of beaties found in the Crohens have been notified and will return to Brooklyn to see if anything has been stolen.
